be threshing of the dry grain in this vicinity and Cedar Valley. The earlier reports of yields. In most instances the yield was well above the average and many cases extraordinary crops were harvested. The grain is, as a rule, well filled and grades near the best mark.

Some of the largest growers who have already completed their harvest threshing have reported the following returns:

W. Davis on 100 acres threshed 25 bushels to the acre.

Edward Southwick secured an average of twenty-eight bushels on a total of 100 acres. Some of the better ones went as high as thirty-five bushels it was found, but a patch of water reduced the average to the named amount.

W. Davis on 100 acres averaged 25 bushels, as also did John Smith on eighty acres.

Carl Smith had 140 acres planted secured an average yield of twenty bushels, it was learned.

George Southwick farm on 150 acres were planted gave a yield of 3100 bushels, or an average of slightly less than twenty bushels.

Other farmers in the closer vicinity of Lehi secured yields of from 20 to thirty bushels per acre. The fields were smaller.

Work of plowing and getting ready for the fall planting season on these farms is now occupying the full attention of the farmers.

Worry—A Moral.

There was a man who worried because he feared he would die before he could make adequate provision for the future of his wife, to whom he was passionately attached. He carried his worry with him night and day. It made him so melancholy and irritable that his wife, unable to bear his sad, dull company any longer, ran away with another man, and he never saw her again! Worry often does things like that!

Paraffin Treatment for Burns.

The use of a few drops of paraffin is an English physician's first aid suggestion for treating burns. The application can be made from a paraffin candle held at a height of seven or eight inches, but care is to be taken to avoid forming a coating so thick as to be unbearably hot. A piece of gauze or linen is spread over this layer, with another coating of paraffin outside.

In 1783.

The representative of Spain at the Paris convention in 1783, Count Aranda, wrote to his monarch, in regard to America, as follows: "This federal republic is born a pygmy. The day will come when it will be a giant, a Colossus, formidable even in these countries. Liberty of conscience, the facility of establishing a new population on immense lands, as well as the advantages of a new government, will draw thither farmers and artisans from all the nations."—Henry Van Dyke.

Home of Man Who Refuses Title

This old colonial home in West Town, Pa., is the home of Thierry Van Castle Phillips—"Squire" Phillips, since he recently was elected justice of the peace, member of an old and well-to-do American family, descended from the Polish Grand Duke Sakrovolaski Phillips Moro, who fled to America generations ago. The eldest son of this duke went to England upon the death of his father, who had accumulated millions in the United States, and assumed the title of Grand Duke Moro de Moro, which he was entitled. His last descendant died recently, and the title, with his fortune, descended to the West Town squire. But the squire has refused it.

STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION AT BRIGHAM PEACH DAY

On Tuesday, September 13, the Utah State Press association will hold its summer outing at Brigham City and some distinguished visitors will be in attendance. Mr. E. E. Brodie, president of the National Editorial association and H. C. Hotelling, executive secretary of the National Editorial association, New York City, will arrive there Tuesday morning. There are over fifty members of the State Press association, and should all the daily papers be represented, there will be "some" bunch of pencil pushers in Brigham City on September 13th and 14th.

A business session will be held in the Commercial club quarters during the day on Tuesday, an automobile ride to the Fish Hatchery and a melon bust in one of the peach orchards and a big feed and entertainment in the club rooms at night. Wednesday morning the "bunch" all branded with "ribbon badges" will be turned loose in the city to enjoy the Peach Day celebration.

WINDOW DISPLAY CAUSES COMMENT

A novel window display at the Racker Mercantile Company store has caused considerable comment the past week. The display is made up of a 100 pound sack of sugar, a sack of flour, two sacks germade, soap, crackers, gloves, sox and several other articles, in all, offered to the public for the total of twenty-seven dollars.

In the window is a sign stating that a year ago a sack of sugar retailed at twenty-seven dollars. Now the entire display could be had for the same money.

By way of comparison the display brings out the decline in prices more forcibly than could otherwise be shown, which fact made the idea worth while and incidentally started the comments.

SPEEDING FORD CRASHED INTO HEAVY WAGON

Another case of pure luck came to light Saturday evening when four occupants of an auto and the driver of a team were found to be but slightly bruised following a bad accident on the state road half way between Lehi and American Fork.

Elmer Jackson, of this city, was driving a team of mules, hitched to a heavy wagon, Saturday evening. He was proceeding north when with no warning at all the mules swung to one side and the same instant a car crashed into the front wheel of the wagon. Mr. Jackson was pitched headlong to the road lighting upon the back of his neck and shoulders.

The occupants of the Ford, consisting of four American Fork young men in an intoxicated state, and Mr. Jackson were removed to the Lehi Hospital where a check was made on their injuries.

Mr. Jackson had received some very painful bruises but no bones were broken and he was taken to his home. The occupants of the car were in a dazed condition but later their trouble was found to have been entirely the result of drink.

The car was badly damaged and the heavy wheel on the wagon was broken. It was said that the car carried no light and was traveling at an excessive speed.

Miss Josephine Merrill left this week to teach school in the Liberty school at Salt Lake City. Mrs. Merrill spent two days there with her.

Wonderful Babylon.

The city of Babylon, when built by Nebuchadnezzar, formed one of the greatest and most magnificent of the world has ever seen. Ancient historians can find no words to describe the grandeur of the palaces, the splendid edifices, large gardens and pleasure grounds, especially the hanging gardens, a sort of lofty terraced structure supporting earth enough to grow trees.
